HON. BOB FILNER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 10, 2012

Mr. FILNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to proclaim that organized labor and its leaders are often the sole-source fighting for the rights of working men and women all across this great nation for many decades.

One such leader from my 51st Congressional District, who has been at the forefront of this unified labor movement in Southern California, is the very dynamic Business Manager of the San Diego County Building & Construction Trades Council AFL-CIO, Tom Lemmon. In Tom's capacity, he oversees twenty-two affiliates with separate jurisdictions, in addition to directing fourteen independently operated joint labor-apprenticeships.

In addition to his other accomplishments, Tom is Chairman of the Board for the San Diego Buildings Trades Housing Corporation that owns and operates a four hundred and fifty-unit affordable housing complex in National City that he lived in during his early teens.

Tom served as member of the Independent Citizens Oversight Committee for the San Diego Schools Prop MM Construction Bond, he was the Chair of the San Diego Community College District's Construction Sub-Committee, and further served as Chair to the Advisory Committee for the Tech Academy which is located at Kearney High School.

Tom is currently a very active member of the United Way and still finds time to serve as a trustee for the Western States Health and Welfare Benefits Trust Fund; he is the President of the Imperial County Building Trades Council. Tom is also a long time member of the Old Mission Beach Athletic Club having served their Board for several years in the capacity of their 2nd Vice President.

Tom attended San Diego Mesa College before enlisting in the United States Marine Corps, earning an honorable discharge. He then earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Labor Studies from the National Labor College.

Tom started his career in the building and construction trades as an entry-level construction worker and took full advantage of educational opportunities offered by the Insulators & Asbestos Workers Local Union #5 Apprenticeship Training Trust. After gaining experience in the field and classroom, Tom rapidly advanced to managing a variety of major construction projects throughout the Southwest and Hawaii. He is a life-long resident of San Diego where he still resides with his wonderful wife and daughter.

We need to congratulate Tom Lemmon for his many years of dedicated service to the organized labor movement in San Diego and to working men and women all across this great nation!

TRIBUTE TO TIM CONLEY AND THE PEOPLE OF MORGAN COUNTY

HON. HAROLD ROGERS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 10, 2012

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Morgan County Judge Executive Tim Conley and the first responders of West Liberty, Kentucky in honor of their steadfast resolve and perseverance to rebuild and recover the town of West Liberty in the midst of disaster.

On Friday March 2, 2012, thousands of lives changed across southern and eastern Kentucky, when multiple deadly tornadoes ravaged our region, including an EF-3 tornado that destroyed downtown West Liberty with winds reaching 165 mph. Homes were leveled, businesses and community centers annihilated, families were displaced all over the countryside, and loved ones were lost. County Judge Tim Conley, West Liberty Mayor Jim Rupe, and first responders took charge immediately, serving as heroes both during and after the storm. Along with many others, Judge Conley risked his own life to rush a family into shelter at City Hall, barely hanging on as the violent eye of the storm nearly swept them away. Within days of the disaster, Conley made tough decisions to get the county back into operation after the tornado shut down every bank, grocery store, gas station, and government building in town. Through his dedication and hard work, Conley kept up morale, supplied vital information to residents, and rallied the community as they began to envision a new future for West Liberty.

Thousands of volunteers and tireless emergency crews helped Kentucky families get back on their feet after the deadly tornado outbreak. Our brave first responders searched every home for survivors, staying awake until everyone was accounted for and had received medical attention. The volunteer efforts ranged from people of all ages, including Boy Scouts and Disabled American Veterans, who fed and clothed dozens of families in addition to cleaning and rebuilding homes and businesses. Volunteer efforts were so abundant that FEMA did not have to set up any temporary shelters, due to the numerous families in West Liberty that selflessly took in their neighbors and family members.

As West Liberty continues to rebuild and look forward, we must remember and honor the hundreds of first responders, local officials such as Tim Conley, and volunteers who worked hard to lend a hand in the darkest hour. It was through their selfless service, resilience, and valiant leadership that helped put Morgan County on the path to recovery.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Tim Conley, our first responders, and the numerous volunteers throughout Kentucky for their heroic acts of bravery, compassion for those in need, and determination to recover and succeed.

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, today I recognize Captain Emiliano Tellado of the United States Army for his dedication and service to our Nation.
